Circuit Court.

Little business has been transacted in the Circuit Court in the past few days. Yesterday the case of the Commonwealth vs. Ben Hickman, under indictment for the murder of Dave Robinson, colored, was called but owing to the absence of important witnesses the case was assigned for this afternoon.

The damage suit of Calvin Elam's Administrator against the Paris Gas and Electric Co., was entered into and the jury secured. Three witnesses had been examined when court adjourned yesterday afternoon. The suit is for the amount of $20,000 which the plaintiff claims for the death of Elam who was in the employ of the Home Telephone Co., and who it is alleged came to his death by coming in contact with a live electric wire while in the discharge of his duties and was knocked from a telephone pole on Higgins avenue which resulted in instant death. The defendants are represented by Judge Denis Dundon and Hon. C. M. Thomas, while Talbott and Whitley represented the plaintiff.

The grand jury which adjourned Friday will resume its deliberations again this morning.

FRIDAY.

The jury in the case of Queenie Jackson vs. J. H. Haggard returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Haggard Friday morning. The case was a suit for $61 alleged to be due on a note. The jury failed to reach an agreement Thursday afternoon and were excused until Friday morning when the verdict was returned.

The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Harry Barton on a charge of chicken stealing brought in a verdict of guilty Friday afternoon. The penalty is from 1 to 5 years in the penitentiary.

The grand jury, upon its request was excused until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock when it will resume its deliberations. The body made a partial report returning a number of indictments but by order of the court they are withheld until bench warrants are issued and served.

Will Attend Initiation.

Seventy-five members of Rathbone Lodge No. 22, K. of P., will go to Lexington Friday night on a special interurban car leaving Paris at 7:30 o'clock to witness the initiation of a class of three hundred in that city.

Wright Is Given Judgment.

Wm. Wright, formerly a resident of this city, was given a judgment of $500 against Patrolman Chas. Thomas, a member of the Paris Police force and his surety, the American Bonding Co., of Baltimore, in the United States Circuit Court at Frankfort Friday. The suit was the result of an alleged assault on the part of the defendant when arresting Wright on the night of August 27, 1910, in which the latter sustained severe injuries. In the Bourbon Circuit Court Thomas was assessed a fine of $25 and costs for the offense. A large number of witnesses were summoned in the case. The defendant was represented by Attorney John Williams, the bonding company by Judge Ira Julian, of Frankfort, while Attorney P. A. Thompson, of this city, represented the plaintiff. Wright, who is at present employed as assistant manager of the cloak department in the Mabley & Carew establishment in Cincinnati, passed through Paris Sunday enroute to that city.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Mary Lou Myall died in Lexington Sunday night after a protracted illness. Mrs. Myall was aged about 45 years and was the wife of the late E. J. Myall. She was the daughter of Mrs. Mary Lou Smedley, of this city. One daughter, Miss Louise Myall, a student at the Millersburg Female College, survives. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Paris cemetery conducted by Rev. E. M. Lightfoot, of the Baptist church.

Attend the Minstrel.

Don't fail to attend the performance of the Bourbon Black Blizzards at the Opera House tomorrow night.
